A TOUCHING SCENE.

The late Augustus Schell, an eminent and wealthy citizen of New York city, found ample President Porter, in an article on the Christon time from the social, political and literary circles, of which he was a distinguished ornament, to interest h maoff deeply in noble charities; he sion. He does this bripresenting the type of MENT.

As it is to the interest of the governing class agencious sum whenever he was called upon to increase its numbers, it is no wooder this tendency is constantly on the necrosso. A part of this increase is attributable to the people themselves. If we ask the government to do a welcome relief from his great pair, when the callify writed the number of the service of the properties of t a welcome relief from his great pain. When we run through at the veries departments of the government, take into consideration in commissions, its a spropriations to investigate cattle diseases and build school houses; and all the various things it attempts to do; when to this we add the fast increasing machiner of state, county and municipal government, and see how easily officialism in creases and house it is not because the party whip. This wai practically the office well to hait and establish the enform he and the manner who did not support that policy were who did not support that policy were who did not support that policy were wholly in the people to rule themselves—get along without sp much congress, legislature and always the making. This is a subject that cannot be too often brought to our attention. Our so called reform is a sham. True reform must be matural and fundamental. We cannot proper or develop by paying out taxes to hire and keep officials to declare that obed ence to its order was entirely optional. Such talk as this from a popular extengith. Such talk as this from a popular extending the great counties the presulting souther is any, is "on the siy." In fourteen other who has no favors to sak from the republicans sounds like a political revolution.

The dispatches reporting the great camp fore of the Grand Army at Washington the other night, told us that three reducing cheers were given for "the son of Abraham Lincula" nuce the entrance of the secretary of war. Later it the evering, the report also easy, he was called upon long and londly for a speech, but to the odd rate is about to expire, with a probability
